

Chrom - Trimmline

Zur Information an alle, ich habe gerade die folgende e-mail an den Liferrantten der Chrom-Teile geschickt:

Happy Holidays Ben

I recently bought the Touareg Pillar Trim Pieces from you. I posted my pictures on the German Touareg Forum and several people contacted me whether I could arrange a group buy for them. As of currently, I would have 11 interested parties for the polished trim (however, I believe it could be more once the holidays are over and people go back to their computers). Would you be willing to do a drop shipment (for reasonable cost to a single location) to Germany? What if everybody would pay you individually through Paypal, but you would ship to a single location.

Would you be willing to give a reasonable price break for this group order?

Please contact me and we can discuss the individual details, and I would advise the group about them. Some people on the list feel that we could reach an order volume of 20 units.

Let me know what you think about this.

Have a nice Holiday Season
