Beitrag von „quattro“ vom 3. Januar 2011 um 23:12

Hi T-freunde, pardon my English...

My summer trip to Icealnd in 2010 were so a great experience that I want to go back this summer (2011).

I probably will be going in late July, early August for 3 weeks (included 2 days on the ferry, back and forth).

yes, interested...sure...that would be the best end for my touareg-story, 'cause the car will go back to the dealer in September 2011...

Unfortunately we will not be able to join due to the fact that I have to work abroad in that period...:(

Perhaps you'll find some other interested TF...good luck! 🤔

Thank's a lot - well done  big grin: found or type unknown

Thank you all for your kind words

- And yes I saw that Korsika adventure just a bit to late, hope to join in at a later date... Just ordered a set of General Grabber AT2 265/65-17 in preparation for a trip o Morocco sometime in 2012...
