

Latte Machiatto

Beitrag von „boutrosa“ vom 7. Juni 2007 um 22:53

Hi Germany.

I do not speak or understand German. Sorry about that. I have to say that I enjoy all the pictures in the Galerie section.

I would like to purchase a v6 TDI touareg with Latte Machiatto interior. I am looking for a picture to see what the interior looks like. Can someone please post pictures of a latte machiatto interior. I have looked all over the internet and on VW sites and cannot find anything.

Thank you very much.

we had the same question a while ago here but no-one posted any pictures - which is rather strange because usually everything is answered/posted within a few hours.

regards

Frank

Frank, thank you for your reply. Lets hope we have better luck this time. Is there somewhere we can write VW asking them to update their website or email us pictures?

Thanks

Andy

Hello Haiti!

One of our former Touareg-drivers switched to a Passat in latte macchiato. Different car, but I would say very likely the same colour. He posted some pix over here, but after "searching-and-not-finding-within-2-minutes" I'll leave it up to you. 😄

Just send a pm to agroetsch (see user list) - I'm sure he's able to help.

ok thanks everyone for your help.

However I feel that the color will be different from the passat. try doing a konfigurator for boot the passat and touareg using the latte interior, and they show up two completely different colors. the passat interior looks beige, and the touareg looks brown.

thanks,
Andy

I am trying to attach pictures of the touareg and passat interiors from the konfigurator

I am not sure if I am doing it correctly. Is that what "Dateien anhängen" is for?

Hope fully I got it right.

From those pictures you will see that the colors are not the same. So I am confused. There is also a white touareg review on you tube that the interior looks like a milk chocolate brown. So I am even more confused on which one is the color of the latte .

I cannot seem to access youtube for some reason now to post a link. I guess they are down. I will once that I can.

Sorry Andy, didn't want to increase confusion!

Personally, I like the color of the touareg interior from the konfiguator much more than the interior of the passat. I also like the chocolate brown even though its very dark. I finally ordered the Macchiatto with exterior white, and vavona wood

I will be sure to post pictures when I receive the car.

Thanks
Everyone.

...so you already ordered? 🤔

What about the time gap till you will receive the car? What did your local dealer say?

Btw: Congratulations! Very good choice! 👍👍👍👍

Here is the thing, I ordered in February- march

I had wanted pure beige, but it was not available, in White, So I asked for the latte because here its too hot for black, and I am tired of grey. However, It has been impossible to find a picture of the grey.

Here is what I ordered. campanelly white, latte cricket, VW premium audio, Dynaudio is not available for us, memory seat, full size spare, All the exterior trim, steel suspension oh and V6tdi. 🤔

I think everything else is standard.

Its on the boat that all that I know. I hope to have it within month.
